Invited-Besolutions Adopted.

[Special telegram to the Dispatch.] RALEIGH, N. C., May 27 .- This morning President George Z. FENTILIZER TAGS. This season the Commissioner of Agriculture has shipped to the various manufacturers of commercial fertilizers about 1,100,000 license-tax tags. One of these is required on each bag, and the average number of bags to the ten is ten—making 110,000 tons, at twenty-five cents per ton. The receipts from this new system of taxation are therefore about $27,500. A few tags are now shipped daily, though the season has practically closed.

The Railway Commission has made a number of concessions to the smaller railways, branches, &c., as regards both freight and passenger rates.

A COLORED TRAGEDY IN BEDFORD. Farmer Woodson Kills Farmer Mason for Taking the Fence-Rails.

[Special telegram to the Dispatch.] [Special telegram to the Dispatch.]

LYNCHBURG, Va., May 27.—A fatal shooting affray is reported to have occurred early this morning near Bethel, Bedford county, between two colored farmers. The facts are as follows: Bill Woodson and Tom Mason got into a dispute about some fence-rails, which they owned in partnership. Mason, it seems, had been in the habit lately of using some of these rails for frewood at his home. Woodson remonstrated with him about burning the rails, but Mason persisted in the practice. A day or two ago Woodson told Mason that if he caught him taking any more of them from the field he would shoot him.

SHOT AND KILLED.

Notwithstanding this threat Mason went to the field early this morning and got some of the rails, whereupon Woodson ran across the field with a shotgan in his hand and commanded Mason to drop the rails, and upon Mason's refusing to do so fired. The shot took effect in the left side of Mason's breast, and death is supposed to have been instantaneous. The body of the dead man was found by his wife, who, becoming impatient at his delay in bringing back the firewood, went out to look for him. She reported the matter to some white people, who went to Chus as to what direction he took.

POPULAR PETERSBURG WEDDING. Held-An Early Sale Contemplated,

[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.] Rogerson, as popular young insurance—man, was married this afterneon to Miss Hannah M. Townsend, a charming and beautiful young lady. The ceremony was performed at the residence of the bride, on lilinton street, by the Rev. Dr. C. J. Gibson. The couple left on the afterneon train on a bridal trip to the North. A brother of the groom and a sister of the bride were the waiters at the wedding.

It is understood that the joint committee of the Chambers of Commerce of Richmond and Petersburg on the Virginia and Carolina raliroad will confer with raliroad men and other persons supposed to be interested in the building of the road relative to its construction. There are good hopes that the road will be built, and it is said the Potersburg committee are in favor of an early sale with that view. The Common Council will, of course, have to take proper action before any sale is authorized, and the sale will take place upon order of the court. As germain to this matter it may be stated that when the road is built its old line, as inid down and in part condemned through the city, will have to be changed, as recent important buildings have been erected on the line which cannot be removed. STILL ANOTHER CONFERENCE.
